Cording gains Alfred Garbe as Head of Germany

Frankfurt, 6 February 2019 – The Cording Real Estate Group (Cording) has appointed Alfred Garbe, 37, as Head of Germany. In this newly created position, he will head the company's German business, optimising the existing German instructions and forging ahead with the growth in assets under management in Germany.

Alfred Garbe is a member of Cording's Group Management Committee. Together with the teams led by Reiner Beckers, Head of Business Development, and Stephan Schaal, Head of Investment Germany, he will work on the further expansion of Cording's German business. Alfred Garbe reports directly to Rodney Bysh, CEO of Cording.

Prior to joining Cording, Alfred Garbe was Director - Head of Logistics at Corpus Sireo. A graduate in Business Administration, earlier positions in his career include Co-Head of Asset Management at M7 Real Estate and Head of Asset Management Germany at Hansteen.

Rodney Bysh, CEO of Cording, comments: "In creating this new position, Cording is emphasising the importance of the German business in its existing corporate strategy. At the same time, in Alfred Garbe we have gained an acknowledged expert in light industrial and logistics properties – a field in which we want to become more involved in the future. With his many years of experience and good networking in the industry, he is a strong reinforcement for our team."
